 2. If the taxpayer is then dissatisfied, he may take appropriate action in the superior court to recover payments made under protest. Court action shall be taken within sixty (60) days after the tax collector has mailed his reply as required by paragraph 1 of this subsection. Failure to take court action within the required sixty (60) day period shall make the protest null and void.
 3. If court action has been taken by the taxpayer under paragraph 2 of this subsection, all subsequent payments due shall be paid on or before the due date. However, if each tax form is plainly marked "Paid Under Protest", such subsequent payments shall be treated as part of the original protest until such time as court remedies have been exhausted or the court action withdrawn by the taxpayer.
